Qualification

Introduction

Gain recognition with our Emergency First Aid at Work qualification.

Overview in brief

Employers are responsible for making sure employees get immediate attention if they are taken ill or injured at work and this can mean appointing a trained first aider.

If you're a first aider why not enhance your skills and prospects by having a qualification? Our first aid qualifications also meet the requirements of statutory regulations, so your employer can be confident too.

The finer details

Our Level 3 qualification will help you to perform emergency first aid safely, effectively and efficiently in the workplace and will make sure your colleagues are in a safe working environment.

You'll receive both theory and practical training. There is a single mandatory unit which covers the essentials of emergency first aid. Once you have completed the assessment you will achieve the Level 3 qualification in Emergency First Aid at Work.

Who should attend?

Our qualification is for you if you're appointed as a first aider in your workplace.

What will be covered?

When you have completed the qualification, you'll be able to:

- Understand the role and responsibilities of a first aider
- Assess an incident
- Provide first aid to an unresponsive casualty
- Provide first aid to a casualty with external bleeding
- Provide first aid to a casualty who is in shock
- Manage a casualty with minor injuries.
